

dear sir,                   xm radio is truely a blessing to my wife and i as we drive truck over the road and has prvided us with up to date weather and road condistions needed to do our jobs safely , not to forget the meny hours of intertanment   that has helped us stay accident free by keeping us on top of thing the long night after long night week in week out. please dont make our jobs any harder than they already are by taking xm from us.

don & jan waldron